

"Amazing Grace"

An inspirational story of survival, faith,
and hope on America's Death Row

Juan Melendez spent nearly 18 years on Death Row for a crime he did not commit.
He will share his remarkable story.

Tuesday, March 27, 2012

Bricolage Theater at 8 pm
937 Liberty Avenue Pittsburgh, PA 15222
admission free

"A perfect example of hope and survival."

~ Youth in detention, Las Vegas, Nevada

"A brilliant speaker and a brilliant story teller!"

~ University of San Francisco law student

"One of the most powerful and moving events we have had here - not just the extraordinary story he had to tell but the grace and skill with which he told it."

~ Director St. Ethelburga's Center for Peace and Reconciliation, London, England

Please join us to hear Juan tell his incredibly moving story!

Co-sponsored by Pennsylvanians for Alternatives to the Death Penalty
Pittsburgh Faith in Action
Pittsburgh Area Jewish Committee
American Civil Liberties Union
Pittsburgh
Amnesty International Pittsburgh

