

17 Years, 8 Months, & 1 Day on death row ...

Juan Roberto Melendez

Juan Roberto Melendez spent seventeen years, eight months, and one day on Florida's death row for a crime he did not commit. Upon his release on January 3, 2002, he became the 99th death row prisoner in the United States to be released with evidence of innocence since 1973. Beyond the death penalty, Mr. Melendez's story is an energizing and inspiring story of hope and survival that resonates with people all across the political and socioeconomic spectrum, inspiring many to activism and public service.

Please join us to hear Juan Melendez tell his moving story of injustice, hope, and survival!

Wed., March 4, 7:30 PM
Sixth Presbyterian Church
1688 Murray Ave.

Cosponsored by:

- Amnesty International Pittsburgh
- Pennsylvanians for Alternatives to the Death Penalty
- Sixth Presbyterian Church

To reserve child care for this program, please call the office at Sixth: (412) 421-2752.